SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

X SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We may find it hard to comprehend that Jesus is truly here and present with us. Each time we receive holy Communion, we truly receive Christ. Nourished and strengthened by Jesus, we draw closer to him. Our participation in holy Communion allows us to live in greater love and unity with one another and gives us the strength we need to share Christ's light and love with others.

Life itself is a precious gift from God. With that gift comes the obligation to use what we have been given for the betterment of ourselves and others. To waste the talents that are uniquely ours is a loss that can never be recovered. We can praise the Lord with who we are and all that we are.

XI & XII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel offers us some important reminders about forgiveness. We are to forgive others as God has forgiven us. God's mercy is boundless and he will forgive us for any sin if we place our trust in him, love him and humbly ask for forgiveness. Upon being forgiven, we are to generously love and forgive others.

The Messiah was expected to free the Jewish people from oppression, and restore the freedom and holiness of their nation. Jesus instead reveals that the Messiah will suffer, die and be raised from the dead, and that true discipleship requires self-denial and sacrifice. Understanding this, let us take up our cross each day and follow Jesus.
