SUNDAY BULLETIN

II & III SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Samuel does not recognize God's voice, but he is alert and obedient, listening and ready for action. We hear that he ran when called, and another time he rose. Eli gives Samuel the correct response: Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening. We live in a world of noise and distraction. Are we ready to answer? Can we even hear?

God's plan isn't always apparent to us. We face suffering and uncertainty in our lives, yet faith allows us to trust that these difficult times will eventually lead to a great good. How many times do we have to stumble and fall before we realize that following God's ways, and not our own, leads to happiness and salvation? Let us not resist the Lord, but answer his call.

Begin your prayers by saying, "Blessed be God who has brought light into our darkness." Light the candles daily and spend a moment in prayer.

Today reminds us that 40 days have passed since Christmas when Mary and Joseph brought the child Jesus into the temple. There they encountered Simeon who recognized Jesus. Holding the child in his arms, he prays to God in thanksgiving but he also speaks about the suffering both Jesus and his mother will endure. It is a joyful recognition followed with predictions of sorrow.
