SUNDAY BULLETIN

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost Sunday—the day when the Holy Spirit came down upon the Apostles. It was in this double event of Easter and Pentecost that the Church came together to celebrate Mass, praying that the effects of Pentecost may be more fully felt in the Church. Today, our Church celebrates our Feast Day, the Feast of the Holy Spirit. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit, our Patron, help us and guide us on our way in building up His Kingdom. Let us recommit ourselves to community, and begin with new strength to build the Body of Christ. The Christian life is a response to the invitation into the life of God—who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The same Christ who appeared to the disciples in the Upper Room is with us in the Mass today, offering us life with Him today and for eternity. Let us respond to His invitation.

May God's love be in their hearts to strengthen them along life's way. May God's grace, the guidance of His hand and the loving wisdom of His words fill their hearts and light their way today and every day.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

In today's first reading, Moses instructs the people to know, and fix in their hearts, that the Lord is God. They are to keep his statutes and commandments. In Romans, Paul reminds us that through the Spirit we are God's adopted children and joint heirs with Christ.

Christ proclaims the three-fold unity of God and commands that we make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
