THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD & DIVINE MERCY

Dear Parishioners:

God wants to give us himself one more time during this Easter Season. He wants to delight us with his love. He cannot cease to be with us. His love and presence endure forever. As we celebrate together these Paschal Feasts I would like to address my wishes to you. This coming time is a time of an extraordinary passage—the passage of Jesus from death to life. We are facing another encounter with the Risen Lord. We have to experience this right now in our life. Why not try to live differently and more fully rejecting all bad deeds and immerse ourselves in God's life. The Church in the liturgy of Lent invites us to a renewal of heart. We are invited to renew the awareness of being baptized and belonging to Christ. We live this renewal especially during the Paschal Triduum. Let us not miss this wonderful time to be with the Love of our life. I wish you all the best. May we enter into the mystery of the Resurrection and experience a possibility of new life. The life with the Risen Lord gives us the possibility of genuine happiness and joy which no one can deprive us.

Pastoral Team: Fr. Jacek Nosowicz, OMI; Fr. Piotr Dudek, OMI; Fr. Wojciech Wojtkowiak, OMI.
