SUNDAY BULLETIN

XV, XVI, XVII SUNDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

July 14: Jesus appointed, instructed and sent seventy-two disciples to proclaim the kingdom of God. With his authority, they were able to spread the Gospel message, and it continues today. For we, too, are called, appointed, instructed and sent with authority. We are sent to engage the world and proclaim the kingdom. Like the early disciples, we are not sent alone: we have the Church as mother, and each other as co-travelers on the journey.

July 21: The attributes of both Martha and Mary are to be admired and imitated. By sitting at the feet of Jesus, we learn to accept the challenge to be of service to others. Christ remains the one to imitate in our daily interactions with others.

July 28: Faithfulness to God is blessed with grace and mercy. Jesus interceded for us, as Abraham did for Sodom, and salvation is ours through his cross. Righteous living, which is adhering to God's commands and caring for one another, is how we embrace our salvation.

Let us pray for one another and for those who may not yet know the Lord—that salvation may be theirs as well. For God is merciful to the faithful.

PARISH RADIO MASS has been broadcast for many years on CKJS 810 AM Radio. Each month we must pay $1,333 which is $16,000 annually. It is very important to keep this program on the air which benefits the sick, elderly and those unable to participate at our Eucharistic Celebrations. To date we have collected $9,480.00. Thank you to the following: J.B. Slawinski $100

HOLY GHOST CEMETERY—we will once again be starting with foundation renovation work in our cemetery as well as preparing the grounds around the Columbarium for the future installation of additional Columbariums. We ask to please use safety when entering the grounds of the cemetery during this construction work. We would once again like to remind everyone to please not place flowers, solar lights or cement plaques in front of the monuments. We continue to have the same problems each year with those not following our rules and this makes it very difficult for the upkeep and maintenance of the cemetery as well for the safety of the staff. All items mentioned above which are in front of the monuments will be removed. We ask for your understanding and cooperation in this matter as we would like to continue to beautify the final resting place of our faithful departed.

XVIII, XIX SUNDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

August 4: Temptation is all around us. It is tempting to get ahead at the expense of others, and we are tempted to put material wealth ahead of spiritual wealth. Following Christian virtues requires grace, and takes practice and hard work. Let us pray for that grace, For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart if we are not rich in what matters to God?

August 11: Faithfully living the life of a disciple requires great trust in a God who can seem distant or even absent, depending on the circumstances of our lives. Sometimes we create the distance by giving priority to the distractions of the world, and sometimes tragic events beyond our control can cause us to doubt God's presence. Maintaining steadfast faith requires dedicated care and attention to our relationship with God. Jesus' example and the power of the Holy Spirit provide us the strength and guidance we need to remain ready to meet him when he comes again.
