VII & VIII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lord delivers Saul into David's hands, and yet David chooses not to kill but to show mercy. As followers of Christ, we are called to love even our enemies and treat them as we would want them to treat us. We are asked to ignore our natural inclinations toward revenge and recompense, and instead choose forgiveness and generosity - to conform ourselves to Christ.

We all know there are times when something "slips out" in our speech. There are times when we perform some questionable action or react more strongly than we intended. The Scriptures today alert us to the relationship of what is in our hearts & minds with what is on our lips. Only goodness can overcome evil and produce goodness - as incorruptibility & immortality overcome that which is corrupt and mortal, & as Jesus Christ overcome the sting of death.

THE LORD IS MERCIFUL AND GRACIOUS!

I & II SUNDAY OF LENT

The Church has begun the spiritual journey of this holy season Lent. With Christ, we enter the desert - to confront the Evil One and resist his false and empty promises. Once again we seek the abundant mercy and power of God. May the Almighty God, grant that we who deserve to be afflicted for our evil deeds may mercifully be relieved by the comfort of his grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Lord is my light and my salvation - whom should I fear? The psalmist writes that his heart speaks of him, and his eyes look for him. The Lord is his helper who awaits him in the land of the living where he shall see his bounty. This psalm of praise complements each of our readings today. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to go beyond and love your enemies. Be perfect, just as your Father is perfect.

BE WITH ME LORD, WHEN I AM IN TROUBLE.
