III & IV SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today, we are confronted with the reality of the liberating power of God's word. Today's readings challenge us to hear, read and put into practice the saving and liberating word of God, thus transforming our lives and to convey the salvation and liberation of Christ to others around us through our renewed lives.

As Jesus spoke to the crowd in the synagogue, he speaks to us here: Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing. Our response ought to be different, however, than those who ran him out of town. Through the Holy Spirit, the word of God is able to penetrate our hearts and transform us into missionary disciples of God's love.

V & VI SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In all of today's readings, people hear the Lord calling them to service, and all of them change course to follow their vocation. Young or old, we all have the responsibility to listen for the Lord's direction and answer with enthusiasm, as did Isaiah, Paul, Peter James, and John.

So often we can be the source of our own suffering. Worldly pursuits and desires for wealth, status, promotion, and the like deceive us into placing our hope in people and things rather than the Lord. This life is fading and only God can offer us true satisfaction in the kingdom of heaven.

BEFORE THE ANGELS I SING YOUR PRAISE

BLESSED THE ONE WHO TRUST IN THE LORD
