TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Faith is a gift that demands a response.

Faith is a gift that God gives freely, but this precious gift can be rejected by us and lost through our failure to nurture it and grow in it. Today's Scriptures encourage us to persevere in faith until the end, remembering that God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and selfcontrol. With the gift of faith, and the help of the Holy Spirit, we can do great things for God.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If we persevere, we shall also reign with him.

Even in extremely difficult circumstances we can find hope and new life in faith. Naaman is cleansed, Paul hopes in God in the face of trial, and desperate lepers are completely healed. In each of these examples, we see the transformative power of faith and the abundant power and grace of God. May the Lord increase and sustain us in faith so as to be strident witnesses of his love and mercy to the world.
