NINETEENTH & TWENTIETH SUNDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

God speaks to our hearts in quiet moments.

In today's Gospel, Jesus goes up the mountain by himself to pray. Jesus often spends the whole night in prayer, teaching us that it is good to seek quietness and stillness when in prayer. God is always with us, but we need to seek him out and listen for the tiny whispering sound of his voice calling us to him.

O God, let all the nations praise you!

Christ's words in today's Gospel are puzzling and can seem unfair. Why does it seem that he initially rejects the woman's request to heal her daughter because she is not Jewish? Did Jesus know she would be persistent in her request? Regardless, Jesus is impressed with her great faith and it provides him a "teachable moment" because he heals the woman's daughter, showing that the kingdom of God is indeed for all people.

TWENTY-FIRST & TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

Let us ask for God's grace to follow him.

Who do you say that I am? If we confess, like Peter, that Jesus is Messiah, there should be evidence of this in our lives. If Jesus is Lord of Sunday morning, he should be Lord of Saturday night. He should also be Lord of our speech and actions. When we walk closely with Jesus as disciples, we will begin to look more like him.

It is only through such sacrifice that we will experience the fullness of joy and life.

Jesus reminds us that if we wish to follow him on the path of discipleship, we will have to pick up and carry our own cross. Just as Jesus was willing to give his all to fulfill the Father's will, we must be willing to give our all to fulfill his will in our lives.
