Excellence in Catholic Education

THIRTHY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God calls us to advance his reign through our talents and actions.

God calls us to advance his reign through our talents, virtues, and gifts. To do so, we must trust in his mercy and presence and leave behind our fears. God gives us all we need for this work, especially in the Eucharist. Today's readings describes traits of a capable wife, citing trust, generosity, and fear of the Lord and call Christians to stay alert and watch for the signs of Christ's return. The Parable of the Talents teaches the importance of using God-given gifts responsibly and faithfully, highlighting accountability, diligence, and the consequences of inaction.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE SUNDAY

I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest.

If we are saying yes to Christ, then our tender shepherd will provide. He will give us all we need. He will give us insight into where our gifts are to be used. He will give us the resources and time to say this yes. He will give us the strength and help to respond to his call. Jesus tells his disciples that the Son of Man will separate his followers by their actions. He says those who fed the hungry and welcomed the stranger will receive their reward.

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.

TOGETHER IN MISSION - It is an invitation to live as grateful stewards of God's manifold gifts, recognizing that all we are and all we have comes from Him. As we respond to His gifts with gratitude, generously and trust, we grow as disciples and experience more deeply His presence in our lives.
