TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar,

And give to God what belongs to God!

We belong to God and to God's kingdom first.

As the Father and Creator of all, God is above all powers on earth. God has called each of us by name in baptism and has entrusted us with building his kingdom in faith, hope, and love. We owe God what belongs to God – our obedience and work of faith – because we belong to God and to God's kingdom before any earthly power.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

October 25: Maksym Alexander ZACHARUK
Our congratulations to both parents & godparents!

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Love for others flows from God's love.

The readings today emphasize that the Christian life is orientated toward others. God gives us specific instructions for how we are to treat others: to love them as we love ourselves. This is possible only after we learn to allow God to love us. The love we receive from God will naturally overflow into how we treat others.

On Sunday, November 8 there will be a collection in support of our Cemetery Fund. As a parish, we are responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of our cemeteries. We have continued with the foundation repair this year five rows have been replaced in section H, we continue the beautification of the Columbarium area, where new benches have been placed and shrubs planted. The plans and layout of the renewed Addis Cemetery will be set next year. We will begin with division of the land into plots and access roads and with building of the garage. As in the previous years, we will be informing you of steps taken and jobs completed in both cemeteries. All proceeds from the Cemetery Fund collection will help us cover these expenses and continue future work. We are asking for your support which will help our cemetery maintain its beautiful appearances as the final resting place for our faithful departed. There are pink envelopes in your Sunday offertory envelopes for this collection. Thank you and God bless all for your support and understanding. A reminder that starting on November 9, all flowers and candles left on the grass or Calvary will be removed. If you wish to keep your candles or flowers, please remove them before that date. Also, please do not leave rocks, small objects, flowers or candles in the Columbarium.
