THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Peace be with you". These are the familiar first words of Jesus to his disciples after the resurrection. We do well to embrace these words in today's secular culture; a culture that is driven by fear and anxiety; a culture that worships busyness and the mind that can only come from trusting in a good and gracious God who provides for all of our needs. You will find peace and immense joy by gratefully accepting God's gifts and sharing them generously.

In today's Gospel, Peter returned to fishing. Could it be that he was ready to go back to his old life—the way of life he knew before Christ called him? Christ enters our lives in a profound way every Sunday. On Mondays we can either go back to our regular lives, or be good stewards of the Lord's Day message by living a life congruent with what we profess to believe. The choice is ours. Stewardship and discipleship are seven-day-a-week propositions.
